

NINA FISCHER

Award-winning actress, international singer, bilingual presenter, self-made businesswoman, free spirit. - German artist Nina Fischer has many facets.

At the age of seventeen she scored her first single release as 'Sina' with ZYX, which marked her start as a professional in the entertainment world. After countless live gigs with bands, singing contests she had won, jobs as a studio singer, an acting part as a nurse in the soap 'Verbotene Liebe' and even a role in 'P!NK's' music video 'Just like a pill' (which was shot in LA by Francis Lawrence) - Nina decided to receive professional training. So instead of finishing her studies of business administration at 'Heinrich-Heine-University' she signed up for three years of performing arts training at 'Constantin School': classical acting, dancing and singing lessons.

Right after graduation, Nina was touring Germany with two musical shows where she starred as the female lead: 'Elvis meets Madonna' (with 'Rockorchester Ruhrgebiet': a full orchestra plus band project) and 'Hollywood in Concert' - a movie-themes show that earned the cast and her the award 'Artist of the Year' by GEDU. At 'CityVision TV' she worked as a news anchor and for 'iMusic1 TV' she hosted a 'Made in Germany' special. Additionally, she started freelancing as a presenter for customers like 'Toys'R'Us' or 'eBay'.

Soon, it was followed by a solo record deal she always dreamt of: at EMI. 'High Heels feat. ZouNina' was featured on many gold- and platinum-certified compilations, but Nina realized: it was not the style of music her heart was in. So instead, she went to Los Angeles to train at the renowned 'Margie Haber Studios', 'Upright Citizen's Brigade', 'Scott Sedita Studios', 'Killian's Commercial Workshop', 'Stella Adler' and with 'Bernard Hiller' - and landed herself an acting management in Sherman Oaks.

When she went back to Germany, she turned to playing covers with function bands and solo: touring the Caribbean with the cruise ship 'AIDamar', singing at 'Yas Island' in Abu Dhabi, doing backings for Austrian popstar 'Andreas Gabalier' at 'ZDF Fernsehgarten' and moved to Munich where she became a local music tip at the 'Nightclub@Bayerischer Hof' jazz club with 'The Groove Lords' or at the 'Käfer Wiesn-Schänke' with 'Hansi & Die Käfergang' at Oktoberfest. Besides, she starred as the lead in feature films and tv series like: 'Vorsicht Falle', 'Nature - The Series', 'Raw 3', 'The Secrecy', 'Ohne Konsequenz', 'In Gefahr' etc. 'The Secrecy' (Nina won three international awards as best actress: 'New York Film Awards', 'Festigious International Film Festival' LA, 'Oniros Film Awards' Italy) aired on Amazon Prime Video, as well as 'M.O.M' (2nd season) with Nina on Joyn.de Currently, Nina is writing the album she always wanted to record: a mixture of Soul/Funk, Pop and Smooth Jazz. Of course self-produced. As exclusive presenter for 'modehaus.de', Nina hosts live homeshopping shows from Germany and Austria.

PHOTO: DAVID MULLER

PHOTO: BJÖRN KNETTER

PHOTO: DAVID MULLER